“I first discovered LifeWave because I had pulled my shoulder cross-country skiing. I get these X39 patches in the mail, I stick one on my arm, I wake up the next morning — all of a sudden, I’ve got less soreness in my shoulder. I’m like ‘You’ve got to be kidding me; it’s half gone!’ Now I won’t train or compete without it.”

Cristian Javier Simari Birkner

World Ski Champion
Argentina

“My name is Cristin Javier Simari Birkner and I am a ski racer from Argentina. I am 40 years old. I am really happy and I want to thank my friend Rocco, and LifeWave for supporting me. Now I am working to keep active and help other young athletes. LifeWave really helps me with my energy and keeping me young. I am working towards the next Olympics and World Championships to be the oldest athlete competing in the next few years.”

Mihaela Buzarnescu

“I’m Rebecca Rudolf and I do professional ballet. In addition to impeccable fitness and skills, the requirements of a professional ballet dancer include the emotional strength to withstand competition and cope with stress. I am delighted that here I come to the aid of the Aeon phototherapeutic patch and as an athlete I consider it important to have an open mind for any method that helps me stay on top!”

Alessia Orla
